WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

Each student will attend two 45-minute sessions from below. The first workshop Begins at 10:15 am and the second at 11:05 am with a 5 minute break in-between. Space is limited, so please attend the workshops that you selected this morning.

1. Justice for Queer Youth in Washington State	(Upstairs) Conference
Jenni Wong, ACLU-WA Staff Attorney	Room
This workshop will provide an overview of recent developments in LGBTQ rights in Washington, focusing primarily on issues relating to queer youth. Specific topics will include bullying and harassment, gay-straight alliances, and accommodations for transgender and gender-nonconforming youth in schools.
2. Privacy in the 21st Century: Outmoded concept or vibrant	Green Room right?
David Hecht, ACLU member, Educator and Attorney
In this era of international terrorism and social media, personal privacy is under threat from many sources.
This workshop will explore such threats, evaluate the justifications that have been given for them, and explore both existing and potential protections from them.
3. Washington's Death Penalty	Gallery
Brynn Felix, ACLU-WA Outreach Coordinator
The United States is the only advanced Western democracy that utilizes capital punishment. In 2014 Governor Jay Inslee placed a moratorium on executions in our state. Learn about the laws and policies surrounding Washington's death penalty and how things are changing.
